Col CASTLE REVIEWS CADETS

A special Retreat Ceremony was held in honor of Col Lyle Castle, Commander Ohio Wing, who made his Annual Inspection trip of the Civil Air Patrol Summer Encampment.

Before accepting the review by the cadets, Col Castle made a complete inspection of the barracks and personnel.

Accompanying Col Castle on the inspection of the cadets was the Great Lakes Regional Commander, Col O.H. (Ollie) Swartz; Lt Col Alice T. Hammond, Great Lakes Executive Officer; Major Gordon Rose, Regional Deputy Dir for Cadets; Lt Col Robert Herweh, Encampment Commander and members of his staff.

Following the inspection, the cadets marched to the parade area where a very colorful formal retreat and parade review was held. Col Castle also accepted the review. In addition to Col Castle and his inspection group, other members on the reviewing stand included Lt Col Franklin Dooley, USAF Project Officer for WPAFB; Lt Col Albert Roby Jr., Regional USAF Liaison Officer; Major Ira Swope, Asst Regional Liaison Officer and S/T Ronald Winimko, Asst to the Great Lakes Regional Chaplain.

YOU GET MORE OUT OF CAP WHEN YOU GET OUT TO CAP MORE

Chaplain Eisemann looked at a certain CAP Senior member very coldly. "I hear you went to a ball game Sunday instead of coming to church," he said.

"That's a lie," Major S protested, "and I've got the fish to prove it."

SCOOP SHEET would like to know who tied Major Schaffner's pipe to his desk. It is so darned strong that something drastic had to be done. If the person can be found an award will be made.

After the evening mess on Thursday, Col Castle gave an informal talk in the Senior Day Room thanking each member for his cooperation in making this year's Encampment so successful.

Col Castle informed the assembled group that Lt Col Dooley, Base Project Officer, has been very pleased with the entire Encampment and that the personnel have conducted themselves as ladies and gentlemen, as rightfully should be expected of each CAP member.

History Lecturer: "Can any of you tell me what makes the Tower of Pisa lean?"

CWO Bill Wylie: "I don't know or I'd take some myself."

You say you have troubles as great as my own,
Maybe my good friend that is true,
But consider the fact that mine happen to me
While yours merely happens to you.

A REVIEWER'S REVIEW OF THE REVIEW

People may say I am no great "shakes" as a reporter but at least I didn't have as many shakes as some of the participants in the review and retreat ceremony on Thursday. Seriously, all cadets and seniors should be complimented on the excellent conduct of the ceremony. From this reporters view, everyone was in step, straight of line and in a word "SHARP".

On the side, there seemed to be a few participants in the review that were not officially on the rolls. It would appear that more than one of the reviewing officers were trying to scratch them out. And that would have ended the seat of his troubles . . . and from the last file of "X" squadron . . . Parade Rest does not mean "Collapse". You keep one foot in place at all times . . . and in your OWN place, not your neighbors. What was going on looked like an Arthur Murray lesson in the two step. If it had been more than two steps, that drowsy cadet next might have been the sole stretcher case for the review. I swear I don't know what held him in a verticle position unless it was that well-starched pair of pants.

And why should all the men have to wear ties . . . while the women have a "V" neck collar. The girls are "cool" in more ways than one . . . and the boys can't even wiggle their adams-apples.

Did everyone's uniform shrink during the winter months . . . or have we put on a little ??? weight. (Pardon my punctuation . . . but the "?" really should come at the end). Weight was put on the also.

Truthfully, if everyone steps as perfectly at the dance Saturday night as in the review, the Encampment will be a real SUCCESS. -Justin Fun, Reporter -

Lt Joe Linorell: I got a date on the corner of S. Ludlow and Fourth St. in Dayton tonight."

Capt Cherryholmes: "Who do you have a date with?"

Lt Linorell: "How do I know who is going to be there tonight?"

WHAT CWO is being called "Hercules" and "Buda Buda" by the troops? Ask Old Dad and we don't mean Old Grandad.

What Cadet in Squadron "H" possesses a beautiful pair of bright red PJs - which look like a zoot suit with a reet seat? By the way, Major McGee, gave us the information, we weren't peaking.

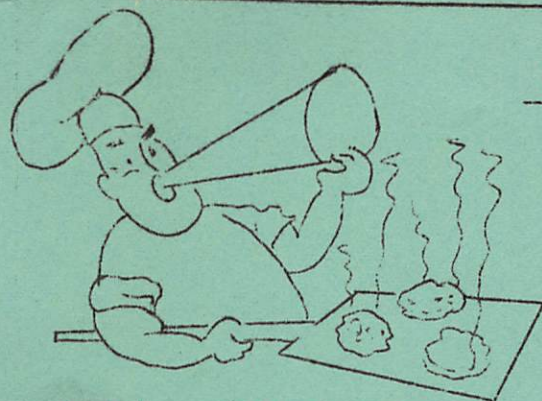

There is a nasty rumor making the rounds that Major Bill Gandert lost his voice due to telling jokes at 0300 hours in the Senior Day Room. That figures. As soon as this rumor got to Col Bevan's office, he said, "I'm King again, Gandert lost his voice."

Ah! If only the people could hear the girls talking about which boys they would like to have in their foot lockers. Even the Captain has a very nice Major picked out.

CAP CHAIN OF COMMAND.

COME AND GET IT

The SCOOP SHEET has previously acknowledged the excellent Mess and birthday party given the cadets by the top echelon of the Mess Hall. . . . but we don't want to forget the other service men, civilians and cadet KPs who have done such a wonderful job all week. It would be impossible for us to list all of the cadet KPs but we do have room to acknowledge the full list of the Mess Hall personnel. They are as follows . . . CWO W-2 DARRELL E. DUCHANOV, Chief Military Food Service Branch; T/Sgt EARL F. PARKER, Supervisor; T/Sgt MARVIN CALDWELL, Baker; S/Sgt MICHAEL O'HARA, Supervisor; S/Sgt BILLY HAWKINS, Cook; S/Sgt CLARENCE LAWRENCE Cook; A/2c JERRY L. SNODGRASS, Baker. The civilian members are JAMES C. Scoby, Cook; DANIEL TURNER, Cook; HENRY O. GOBER, Cook; RONALD W. BOWER, Food Server; RANDOLPH SROUFE, Food Server; GARVER JOHNSON, Food Server, RICHARD COLEMAN, Truck Driver (Motor Pool).

The deepest thanks of every CAP member of the Encampment goes to the above mentioned personnel for making our stay so enjoyable and we do mean enjoyable.

HELP STAMP OUT COMMUNISM ! ! ! ! !

Group III WPAFB is holding a meeting to acquaint people with the danger of Communism and an invitation is being extended to all personnel who are in the vicinity of Dayton on 31 August 1959. Captain John S. Goodman, USAF, Prof of Institute of Technology WPAFB will be the speaker.

There will be music, color guard and a CAP chorus. The place is the YMCA in Dayton, Ohio from 2000 to 2200 hours (8:00 to 10:00 P.M.) and every loyal American should attend and take a friend. Good Luck to you GP III.

CHAPLAINS PROGRM - - -

We feel that the Chaplain's phase of the Encampment has been the most active program for many years. A survey was made by Chaplains Eisenmann and McCausland on vocational interest of cadets for their future life. Out of 210 cadets who were interviewed 74 were definitely interested in the armed forces or aviation in some form. 48 had no definite interest, so these figures should prove to the Air Force and other armed Forces services that CAP is a definite help in recruiting.

CWO Raymond Ratchford was a 11 but run down by a lady driver of a car overflowing with children. When she finally did pause for the red light, CWO Ratchford shouted: "Lady, don't you know when to stop?"

Absent-mindedly the lady looked over her shoulder and said, "Oh, they aren't all mine."

Finally after 40 minutes of manual labor and the efforts of six WOs, the Senior Day Room was made ready for Inspection by Col Castle. It just goes to prove that there is a place for CWOs in CAP. The seniors can push a mop when they have to and not make the cadets do all the work. -CWO George Ellis-

Sandy Roach: "Hugh, can you tell me where elephants are found?"

Hugh Sloan: "Well, elephants are such large animals that they almost always get lost."
